March 2007 Newsletter

Our March meeting was held at the Sandpiper Restaurant on March 1. This meeting did not start off with the ever-so-popular RAFFLE.

The meeting was called to order at 1:20 p.m. There were 17 members in attendance. Lisa asked if anybody had any questions or comments regarding the February 2007 Minutes. Rochelle Tew made a motion to accept the Minutes as submitted; Leslee Black seconded the motion. The motion to accept the February 2007 Minutes as submitted was carried. Denise Martin was not at the meeting, so Lisa tabled the presentation of the Treasurer's Report until our April 2007 meeting.

Old Business

Website – The website is up and running. Please check it out and let Tanja know of any changes, corrections, and/or updates that need to be made.

By-Laws– We took a Vote by Email on accepting the revised By-Laws (which reflect the addition of our Student Members). Of the 37 members who voted, 35 voted YES to accept the changes, and 2 voted NO. As such, the

By-Laws were changed. Please let Tanja know if you did not get a copy of the updated By-Laws.

Bake Sale – Felecia Fife informed the members that we made around $300 at the Bake Sale on February 16. Thank you to all members who baked, and those of you who volunteered to help out – you know who you are!!

A very special THANK YOU to Felecia Fife for her hard work and dedication to the Bake Sale!

Seminar – The Seminar is scheduled for March 17th, from 8:00 a.m. to 4 p.m. The guest speakers include Renny Deese, Nancy Ferguson, Carrie Sonnen, Johnnie Larrie and Phil Heller. Please get your registration forms in ASAP! The deadline to be included in lunch has been extended until March 9, 2007. The donations for the goody bags and door prizes are coming in everyday and there will be one BIG item that you can buy raffle tickets for.

New Business

Check Book Audit- Lisa asked for two volunteers to audit the checkbook next month, prior to transferring it to the new treasurer. The volunteers were Karen Kueny and Belinda Freeman.

Election Committee - Lisa asked for a volunteer to be the Chairperson for the Election Committee. Chris Rhodes volunteered with great enthusiasm!

Paralegal Week - Lisa stated she would have flowers delivered to each member for Paralegal Week, rather than having a breakfast at the Courthouse, as was done in the past.

Member Concerns- It was brought to Lisa's attention before the meeting, that a few of our members can not make it to our meetings since they have a conflict on the first Thursday of the month. As such, a Vote by Email will be sent out regarding moving the meeting to another day of the month.

Up & Coming

April Meeting – will be held April 5, 2007; location to be announced.
