

CCPA, Inc. Newsletter

July, 2008

The Cumberland County Paralegal Association's meeting was held on Thursday, July 10th, 2008 at the Deno's Pizza Palace at 1:00 p.m. The following members were in attendance: Laretha Clark, Karen Kueny, Michelle McCorquodale, Wanda Evans, Mary Johnson, Betty Coleman, Marcie Garris, Jennifer Piner, Diane Libeck-Long, Deborah Brodosky, Phoebe Brown, Rachel Estep, Leslee N. Black, Kathy Britt, Trudy Rutherford and her guest, Barbara Daniel and Beth Smith.

Prior to the meeting being called to order, members were allowed to purchase RAFFLE TICKETS, donated by the CCPA for the cost of one dollar each.

$25.00 Wal-mart Gift Card

Donated by the CCPA

Laretha Clark acting on behalf of Felecia Fife called the meeting to order at 1:20 pm. The minutes from our last meeting (published in the June Newsletter and emailed to the membership) were accepted as submitted. Deborah Brodosky made the motion to accept and Wanda Evans seconded the motion. The treasurer's report was accepted as submitted. Mary Johnson made the motion to accept and Kathy Britt seconded the motion.

Committees:

- Election Committee - Marcie Garris and Kathy Britt
- Parliamentarian - Chris Rhodes
- Door Prizes – A sign up sheet was passed around to the members present. A reminder will be sent out for those who volunteered to bring a gift. Thank you.

New Business:

A $250.00 Scholarship to FTCC including a one year FREE membership was accepted by the members.

The Adopt a Highway program was presented by Deborah Brodosky. According to Evelyn Proctor with the NCDOT there is no cost. It is a 4 year contract and the 2 mile stretch of road (each side) must be cleaned four times per year. If the Members vote in favor, we would choose 3 areas/locations in which we would like to keep clean, although the area/location we choose is not guaranteed by the NCDOT. The NCDOT would provide a road sign with our name listed as well as all vests, bags and temporary signs for when working along side of the road. No children under the age of 12 are allowed to participate. Children ages 12-17 may volunteer only with parental consent.

The idea of evening meetings with a guest speaker and credits offered went over with a bang! Trudy Rutherford made the motion to accept the evening meeting with guest speaker once per quarter and Wanda Evans seconded the motion.

NCPA

by Trudy Rutherford

For NCPA, I can report that we will have the MID-YEAR seminar on September 12th in Greensboro. This is an excellent opportunity for us in Fayetteville to get to attend because it will not require an overnight stay. Details are available on ncparalegal.org.

The annual seminar will be in Wilmington at the HILTON, the beautiful hotel by the river, on March 26th 2009. I'll be going and can share a room with a non-smoker.

Also, as an incentive for CCPA members to join NCPA, I will be able to give away nice, insulated tote bags.

Membership applications are fillable from the web site

See you all at Hunan Garden next week.

LSSCC Bowling Tournament

by Glenda Norman

The Legal Support Staff of Cumberland County held a bowling tournament on Saturday, July 26, 2008, at B&B Lanes. They had a total of twenty-two (22) bowlers who participated. This was a “for fun” bowling event and everyone had loads of fun. Small gifts was given to the bowlers for Male High Series (Derrell), Male High Game (Thomas), Male Low Bowler (Randy), Female High Series (Melba), Female High Game (Valerie) and Female Low Game (Shelby). The “male high series” was given to Myra Brook’s friend, Derrell, who actually had the High Game also but only one prize was given to a bowler. The “low bowler” prize was given to Randy and Shelby, two teens who were bowling with us. A stuffed football and basketball was given to them with a suggestion that they “should either play football or basketball as bowling was not their game.” This got a lot of laughs. This was a good-time event and everyone who participated really enjoyed it. A special thanks to Network Title and Consumer Title for their contribution of “goodies” to give out to the bowlers. We have a Bowling Tournament set up for September 13, 2008, at B&B Lanes as our money-making event. Information for this event will be sent out in August.
